TODAY

Natalie Saenz, Business Development Director for CAPC, a Whittier non-profit that empowers individuals with disabilities to maximize the quality of their lives in their home communities, impressed club members with the great service provided by CAPC.

Natalie stressed that CAPC works one-on-one with clients to enable individuals to live and work semi-independently. CAPC aids individuals in their home and on the job. Ninety employees work with 100 clients.

LONG AGO

Jack Swain was profiled in April 4, 1952's Rotagram. He was a founding member of the Rotary Club of Whittier in 1922 and had the classification of "Senior Active" in 1952.

Active he was: Before settling down as a realtor, Jack worked as a farm hand, owner of a painting and wallpaper business (at age 19), assistant postmaster, banker, and telephone supervisor. He subdivided many East Whittier farms into housing.

Jack exemplified Rotary's motto of putting service above self.
