TODAY

Bob Ruiz of "My Whittier" likes to tell stories, and everyone has a story, about our city and our people—all can be found at "MyWhittier.Com".

Bob came to Whittier 50 years ago and has been providing a local's insight since 2012. Marketing, some with the Dodgers and Angels, is his background, while "MyWhittier.Com" is his passion.

You can shop, read his newsletter, and listen to his podcast with just a click or two on your computer or cell phone.

1928

1928's May 30 Rotogram heralded upcoming programs in June.

"The Life of Lincoln" with the Reverend E. B. Blakesley, who knew President Lincoln personally!

"The Youth of Today and the Olympic Games" by J. L. Brader.

"Moving pictures of the Buick factory and the construction of Buick automobiles" shown by Whittier Rotarian Cid Dorn.

Attendance in April 1928 was 93.6%!
